THE CHAMBER HURST EULESS BEDFORD

Promoting Business for Over 60 Years

February 7, 2020
Contact: Lindsey Colorado
817-283-1521

HEB CHAMBER HONORS 12 COMMUNITY LEADERS

The HEB Chamber of Commerce recognized 12 honorees at its Annual Awards Luncheon, held January 31 at the Texas Star Conference Center in Euless.

The event celebrates member businesses, organizations, and individuals for their outstanding contributions to the Chamber and the HEB community in 2019. JPS Health Network President and CEO Robert Earley served as master of ceremonies.

The 2019 Annual Award Winners:
Small Business of the Year: Central Arts of Bedford/Hurst
Mid-Size Business of the Year: Aloft Dallas Euless Hotel
Large Business of the Year: Texas Health HEB
Officer of the Year: Dalene Parker, Frost Bank
Director of the Year: Buck Weatherby, U.S. Concrete
Chairman's Award: Kimberly Ball, documentWORKS
Ambassador of the Year: Kristie Hanhart, Kristie's Cleaning Service
Gertrude Tarpley Memorial Spirit Award: Steve Farco, Mason-Dallas, Inc.
Members of the Year: Russell Taylor, Smart Realty
HEB Chamber of Commerce Community Service Award: Mission Central Metroplex
Bill Ridgway Spirit of Enterprise Award: Tarrant County College, Northeast Campus
Clyde Mooney Award: Jim Griffin

The Clyde Mooney Award is given to a person who has shown exceptional leadership in our region and has provided service that includes, but is not limited to, the Chamber. It also is the highest honor the Chamber bestows. Jim Griffin served as former Chairman of the Board. Having been involved and a leader in our community for many years, most are probably not aware of the totality of what he's involved in. He has served on numerous boards and been involved with many organizations – chairing most of them at one time – including the HEB Chamber, the HEB ISD Education Foundation, the HEB Rotary Club, Northeast Leadership Forum, Texas Health Resources Impact Council, Bedford Library Foundation, Woodland Heights Baptist Church, and the Mid-Cities

Basketball Association. Mr. Griffin has been involved with the HEB Chamber for many years and used his expertise, experience and negotiating skills for the good of the organization.

President and CEO of the Chamber Mary Frazior says the luncheon is an important event for the Chamber and the community.
"This is an opportunity for us to spotlight some of the members who made significant contributions in 2019," Frazior said. "The honorees are an asset not only to the Chamber but to our community, and we are grateful to have them as members."

The Hurst Euless Bedford Chamber of Commerce was established in 1955 The Chamber's Mission is Advancing Business, Strengthening Community. For additional information, please contact the Chamber at 817-283-1521, visit heb.org or email maryfrazior@heb.org.